Dave,

To a really cute guy that I think is very sexy! Haven't known you too long, so what can I say- We should party sometime! Anne Rolando tells me all about you. Sure hope whatever you do in the future is nothing but the best for you. If you have any senior pictures left, I'd love to have one!

Love,

This

"Road-Back"

The 1982 Cavalier gridders became a "pleasant surprise" for their coaches. They were far-better on the field than they were on-paper in August. It seemed to be their self-esteem — their confidence — which turned-around a 1-8 record in 1981 into a winning season in '82.

Senior Backs

"If there was a turning-point in the 1982 schedule," said one L-P coach," I think it might have been the second-half of the Dixon game. We were 2-1 on the season. We were down by a touchdown at the half. We caught up; then fell behind again. In the final 20-seconds, we scored and won the hard-fought contest."

"From that point," he said, "the attitude of the team was one of confidence — that it could play-against, win-against, any school on the schedule."

"We can handle it!" was the varsity philosophy in 1982 A.D. (After Dixon).

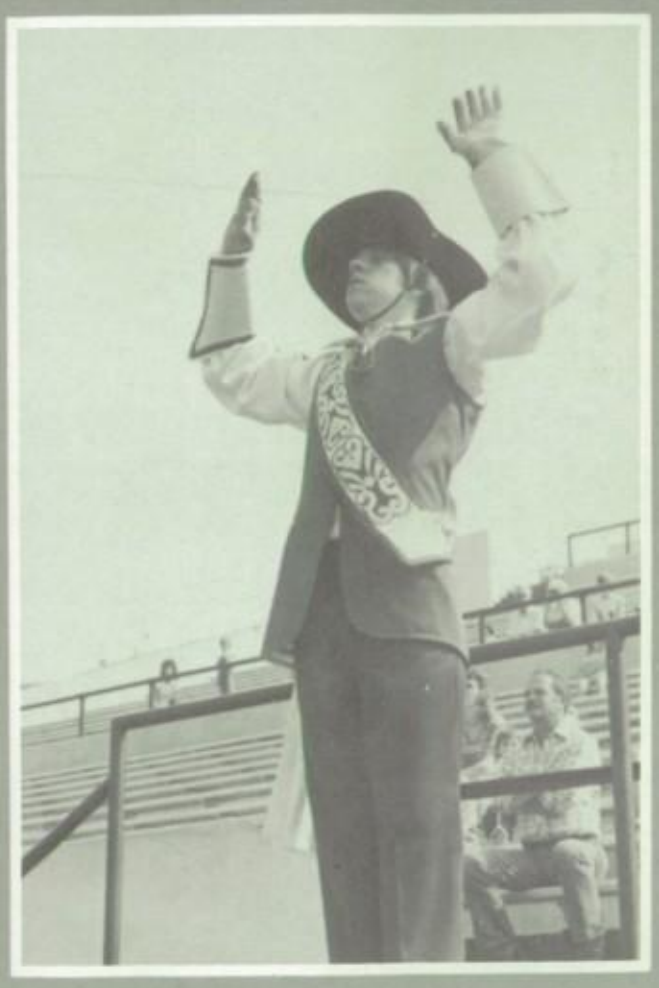
1982-83 Marching Cavaliers

A Smartly-Paced High School Band



Illinois marching band judges took note of the building skills of the L-P Marching Cavaliers — 120-strong! Crowds, which lined parade routes on Princeton and La Salle-Peru streets applauded the crisp-precision of its instrumentation and color guard maneuvers. Drum majors Bill Duttlinger, above, and Tina Bauer, with Color Guard Sergeant Lori Carr, help direct the growth of this exciting band.

Practice Makes-For Perfection

Inside-And-Out; Around The Clock

Before classes begin in August, freshman prospects assemble for a Marching Band Workshop, then join with veteran members for a combined clinic to set its flashy, competitive show. Mornings through September and October find 120 marchers/musicians rehearsing INSIDE on music and OUTSIDE with intricate maneuvers. The '82 marching band season was a skyrocket!

The fortunes of the 1982 Inca Football season can best be expressed, perhaps, by reviewing the records of its co-captains, chosen by teammates at the November banquet.

Jack Considine, top Inca ground-gainer with 833 yards and a total of 54-points on the season, looked to the 26-12 win over Streator as his high-point. He scored three TD's, two with runs of 72 and 75 yards each.

Leading in tackles with 82 (and two QB sacks), Andy Duchaine recalled his "best game of the year". He accounted for ten tackles in the shut-out of East Aurora, 14-0, which underscored a successful Inca season. LEFT: Sophomore coaches Wayne Zebron and Ted Printy. Both L-P Freshman Basketball teams breezed through their schedules, posting winning ledgers. Both looked exciting, played with assurance and, individually, gave promise of more-to-come.

It probably goes without saying that the 1982 International Banquet in the L-P cafeteria was another great ethnic food bash. With lots of it!

And more!

Under the sponsorship of the French Club, the International Banquet program moved on to the east gym for a marathon of international games. Teams from the Foreign Language Clubs and AFS vied for prizes while nearly 300 members and guests watched.

The German Club team took first-place.

"Felice Navidad" was the greeting all-around for Spanish Club members and their guests at the Christmas Party, complete with pinatas and national games. TOP, RIGHT: The Christmas Party "committee," which took charge of the details. ABOVE: Then, there was this group of Homecoming float designers, builders, decorators and "marchers" in the 1982 Parade. LEFT: The Spanish Club provided "El Rodeo" competition at the International Banquet games.

And, if this isn't enough, Spanish Club members, under the direction of a tireless sponsor, Miss Dolores DeCaroli, had time for a couple of field trips to taco parties.

The Spanish Club put it all together this year. "Taco" float and marchers "give-the-works" to the Homecoming opponents. And when it was all-over, the First Place Trophy went to the Spanish Club! ACCESSIBILITY is the mode adopted for "The Library" during the 1982-83 school year. And it's working to the advantage of all students.

The "stacks are OPEN" to provide new freedom. There's an efficient direct-line approach to "research" volumes — from the card files to the stacks. There, other titles, under the same heading, open additional possibilities.

There's a smooth flow of books, IN and OUT. More books and resource materials are available to more students, more of the time, at McCormack Memorial Library.

Library personnel provides greater assistance.

The Excitement Of L-P Homecoming

Really Begins With The Variety Show.
It's An Up-beat On A Super Week Of Activity.
But Before The Variety Show Filled West Gym
With Music, Dance And Skits, There Were
Tons Of Plans, Rehearsals, And Production.

Variety Show

THERE WAS A HOT-TIME IN THE OLD TOWN THAT WEEK IN OCTOBER! Count the reasons: The Spanish Club paraded its taco-riffic float. Cavalettes pepped-up the assembly. DIRECTIONS launched the Variety Show, and itself, on the L-P Scene. Cavaliers sunk the Pirates in the stadium. And it was Saturday Night LIVE at the Homecoming Dance. Great ingredients for Nancy and her exciting Court!

Home-Coming Dance '82

"Whatta great night!" some 250 couples in west gym repeated over the music of Road Angel. They danced long and often; searched-for and picked-off the "stars" with their names inscribed; lined-up for photos to capture the memory of Homecoming Dance '82.

King Ed Doerr and Queen Nancy Fenza glided on to the floor to lead the coronation dance, followed by the Court and their escorts.

L-P Choral Concert: Christmas 1982

Second
Sunday
In December

They were there — the Dominican Singers (TOP); the Freshman Chorus (MIDDLE); the Choraliers, Omega Singers and Advanced Chorus — in Matthiessen Auditorium Sunday afternoon, Dec. 12. They sang carols and holiday songs under the direction of Robert Manahan and Daniel Rinkenberger. CHRISTMAS 1982! ABOVE. LEFT: Accompanists Cristine Scolari and Elizabeth Duston. MIDDLE: Accompanists Karen Parsons and Frank Vlastnik, and baritone soloist Daniel Rinkenberger. RIGHT: Organist Donald Finley. They delighted the holiday audience.

Lounders,

Too bad you couldn't be here with us today. You're not missing ANYTHING. We got to get together this summer down the river and get a party going. Maybe the old man will let you have the boat. Good luck going into the navy. It'll be tough. Party, Party, Party this summer, stay cool, and stay out of trouble.

Doug Janka

Dave,

To a super great kid! Sorry bout the times I got in my moods but that's life. Thanks so much for cheering me up when I was upset about you. Make me feel lots better! I hope your feeling better and I hope you have a great summer. We will have to party when you come home from the navy. Thanks again for being a great friend!!!

Luck always

Love Ya

Nancy

Dave,
Hi sexy!
Well, what can
I say? I'm really glad I got to know you a lot better this year. You're a really great guy so don't ever change. Wasn't lot hope I see ya alot over the summer - what would I do without your cute face! Oh well,
see ya and good luck in whatever you do!
Love,

Mayers

Dave,
How's it going
I wish you were here
in drafting, you should
of seen Hanover's face when he saw me. He stiff hates me.
What do you think of me getting Salem to sign your yearbook. We had a lot of good times this year. I wish you didn't have to go to the Navy - we'll have good times when you come home though. Well good luck hope you have fun stayed out of trouble.
P.S. lets get loud
one more time
before you leave.
